1. Serving Cart by Bodil Kjaer

CHRISTINE GACHOT: This is epic! It would fit seamlessly into any residential project.

ELLIOTT BARNES: I could see this in the executive suites of Lever House. 31.5" w. x 20.5" d. x 28.5" h.; $4,145. cassina.com

2. Route Black by Enrico Pellizzoni

EB: I like the mixture of metal and natural fibers in this 1970s-inspired cart.

CG: Love the caning. That timeless material with a contemporary silhouette is a pleasant contrast. 31.5" w. x 20.5" d. x 28.5" h.; $2,980. artemest.com

3. Barboy by Verner Pantón

CG: A little space-age fun could be a great pop in a more austere space.

EB: I'm envisioning Jacques Tati pushing this through the Arpel house in an outtake of Mon Oncle. 15" dia. x 28.5" h.; $1,140. verpan.com

4. Diligence by Hermès

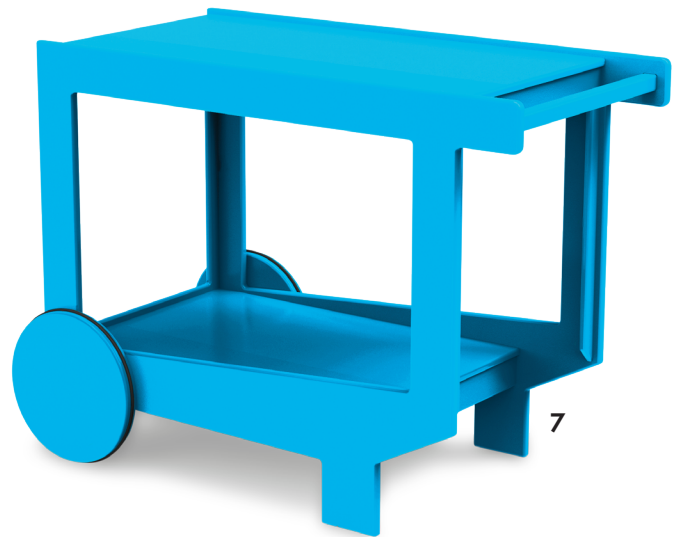

EB: The buggy-style wheels really tie this piece to the equestrian brand codes of Hermès.

CG: Between the basket weave and the leather accents, this one is all about craftsmanship. 34.5" w. x 21.5" d. x 30" h.; price upon request. hermes.com

5. 17313 by Enis Karavil

CG: The tiered ash veneer legs are a fun reference to Art Deco. Someone make me a martini, stat!

EB: It's almost like architecture on wheels. The inverted arches bring to mind the art of De Chirico. 30.5" w. x 18" d. x 32.5" h.; $7,200. sanayi313.com

6. Feliz by Mermelada Estudio

EB: I can imagine it on a stone-covered terrace surrounded entirely by Loom chairs.

CG: It's so cute and super affordable.

35" w. x 18" d. x 32" h.; $499. cb2.com

7. Lollygagger by Loll Designs

CG: I love that this is made of recycled material. The Pop aesthetic would be great in an outdoor setting.

EB: There is something very innocent and playful about this piece.

35.5" w. x 18" d. x 27" h.; $1,195. lolldesigns.com

8. Brays by Beth Webb

EB: The light wood structure accented by thin metal details recalls the work of Raymond Loewy.

CG: A well-executed, contemporary take on a vintage design.

37" w. x 8" d. x 35" h.; $4,615. arteriorshome.com

9. Mi by Neri & Hu

CG: The streamlined, curved design is pretty, and the casters add an industrial edge.

EB: Timeless Italian modernism in leather, metal, and glass.

32.5" w. x 18" d. x 35.5" h.; $9,900. poltronafrua.com

10. Serpents by Zelouf & Bell

EB: The thin, polished metal legs almost disappear, letting the upper shelf float visually.

CG: The pullout tables are sweet, and the snake marquetry adds to the glamour.

24" w. x 39.5" d. x 30" h.; price upon request. lustare.com
